JUVENILE COURT IS

EASY ON SPEEDERS

Suspended Sentence Given Boy Who Knocked a Hole in Moanalua Atmosphere.

It pays to be a minor, especially when one has just been arrested for exceeding the speed limits and faces that uncomfortable fine of $25 in such case made and provided. J. R. Galt, Jr., yesterday pleaded guilty to such a charge in the juvenile court before Judge Cooper and was given a suspended sentence of thirteen months.

He was arrested on the day of the first polo game returning from Moanalua by Officer Chilton who claims that he was going "wide open." Incident ally he was the only one who was caught speeding on that occasion,

He has no chauffeur's license but had a licensed chauffeur sitting beside him. When brought before Judge Andrade for punishment it was found that he was only eighteen years old and was consequently bound over to the other

Judge Cooper thereupon ruled that it was not as reprehensible for an irresponsible boy to "let 'er out" as it was for a man who could manage his machine in a pinch if he had to.

Mr. Mott Smith explains that he has been rusticating at Waialae-but he wasn't taking that vacation he occasionally plans. He was working where he couldn't be disturbed and where he could look back in mind over the sweat ing city and get a better perspective.
